

DECLARATION OF NON-PARTICIPATION IN PUBLIC BENEFIT SCHEMES & STATUTORY PROGRAMS

Filed By: The Clements Private Trust

Seal: Domus De Clements

Date: _____

I. Statement of Non-Participation and Separation

I, Jonathan Daniel Clements, a living man and Ecclesiastical Trustee of The Clements Private Trust, do hereby formally declare that I, and all named beneficiaries and dependents under this trust:

Do not participate in public benefit schemes, corporate franchises, statutory memberships, or trust-diminishing programs of any government, agency, or multinational body

Have relinquished all presumed obligations tied to the use of public benefits (e.g., Social Security, Medicare, SNAP, state IDs) unless explicitly entered into by private contract

Exist and operate under the full separation of private ecclesiastical law from all public statutory jurisdictions

This includes non-participation in:

Government-issued benefit programs

Corporate franchise participation (U.S. Citizen, Resident, etc.)

State employment and unemployment schemes

Public assistance or dependency frameworks

Any presumed benefit tied to loss of sovereignty

II. Legal Standing for Separation from Public Benefit Schemes

This standing is secured under the following:

U.S. Constitution — First, Fourth, Fifth, Ninth, and Tenth Amendments

Universal Declaration of Human Rights (Articles 6, 12, 17, 18, 20)

UCC §1-308 — Reservation of rights in commerce

UCC §3-104 — Private instruments and negotiable remedies

Supreme Court Rulings such as Hale v. Henkel, 201 U.S. 43 (1906): “The individual may stand upon his constitutional rights as a citizen...”

Private Ecclesiastical Law

Law of Nations and sovereign dignity

III. Affirmation of Private Trust Operations

The Clements Private Trust declares:

No presumption shall be made that the trustee or beneficiaries are in need of or subject to government charity

All care, provision, aid, and economic stewardship shall come from within the private trust, its holdings, and its created entities, including The Sovereign Bank of Clements

Any offer of benefit or program made without contract and full disclosure is considered unsolicited and non-binding

This notice applies to all jurisdictions: local, state, federal, international, and any commercial bodies that act under color of law.
